According to an Act of Parliament passed in the 24th Year of his Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1751, the Old Style ceases here, and the New takes Place; and consequently the next Day, which in the Old Account would have been the 3d, is now to be called the 14th; so that all the intermediate nominal Days from the 2d to the 14th are omitted, or rather annihilated this Year; and the Month contains no more than 19 Days, as the Title at the Head expresses.

It is to be obſerved, That the ſeveral Feaſt-Days on which the Payments of Rents, Annuities, &c. depend, and alſo the Opening of Common Fields or Paſtures, are, by the Calendar eſtabliſh'd by the late Act of Parliament, fix'd upon the ſame Nominal Days of the reſpective Months, as before in the Julian Account, they were placed. Yet the Act provides and directs, That the Payments of Rents, Annuities, &c. or the Opening or Shutting of Paſtures, ſhall not by this Means be accelerated or forwarded, but that the Days of Payment, or Right of Opening or Incloſing of Commons, formerly depending on the ſaid Feaſts, are to be kept and obſerved on the ſame Natural Days of the Year, on which the ſaid Feaſt would have fallen, if this Act had not been made. For this Reaſon the 10th of October is called Old Michaelmas Day, and the 22d of November Old Martinmaſs Day, and ſo of the reſt, as being the reſpective Days on which ſuch Rents or Payments become due, and on which ſuch Rights of Common take Place, and not before.

N. B. That all Dates of Births, Dearths, or other remarkable Events in the Regal or Chronological Tables, prior to, or upon, the 2d of September 1752, are to be underſtood according to the Julian Account, or Old Style; but after that Time, the Annual Returns of them are to be placed in the Calendar Part of the Almanack according to the New Style, Eleven Nominal Days later.
